"MOBOLIZE THE YOEMEN" --- Coach Wood

MILAM FARMERS IN BETTER SPIRITS NOW

Cameron's VITAL 5-Point Program

Street Lighting System.
City owned Swimming Park and Bath House.
Adequate School Gymnasium.
Athletic Stadium.
Market Center for Farmers away from court house.

Again the school bell sounds. It sounded, or some other signal was given, for Roman school children centuries ago. The children of the present are following the law of civilization. In tender years they must be prepared for business of life that they may be able to pick up the burden where their elders leave off, and carry it on.

The vacation is over for the children. They have had a good time while it lasted. There are fishing and bathing, and rambling through the woods and camping and trips through the country and mountain climbing and baseball and tennis and field games and other play. But life is not made up of such things. Some of it is grim. That last is what makes schooling the order of the day. Life never stands still. The children of the present will be controlling, achieving citizens of later years. Hence the schools, that the needs of the future may be met, that the men and women of tomorrow may be efficient, capable men and women.

Here's a word of sympathy for the city government. It has no funds to match federal dollars on the new deal spending, but is being besieged on every hand to make application or list projects. Every citizen should know this; should understand the position of the city. On the other hand, it does seem unreasonable that Cameron is not to share in any way in the opportunities for grants by which labor could be utilized and thus fulfill the mission of the Washington government that plans to take men from the relief rolls and put them to work.

With the exception of two grants, one for a sewer extension, and the other for a gymnasium, the city has shared only slightly in these public aids. Considerable money was spent in Wilson-Ledbetter Park and it looks much better and it is hoped will be available for public use, at all times. Many of the improvements are of a private nature, such as buildings for civic clubs. Cameron needs a park that is accessible at all times to the public without restraint or objection. Cameron needs a swimming park, but it will not get it now. Some day a progressive citizenship will build it, or more likely a private business arrangement will make it possible and take profits from its operation.

Seats for the football stadium are almost certain to be set up through federal aid. In this expense the city will share. The government under Mayor Smith has been lenient with the school and it is well. It is our biggest asset. We should spend more on it. Within a few more years other buildings will be necessary, in fact demand for more space is now knocking at the door of the administration officials.

It is doubtful if one in a thousand who voted for the old age pension last Saturday had stopped to count the cost. There is no hope for its operation based upon the amount to be paid and the number who will be eligible. The legislature must lay down such prohibitive conditions that only paupers may receive the pension or give up the job. This amendment, if put into effect as voted by the (See OUR TOWN on page 6)

COUNTY DRY THOUGH VOTING FOR REPEAL

Milam County voted wet on Saturday August 24, but must remain dry until the people declare by local option election whether hard liquors may be sold within its borders. Considerable expense could have been saved the county if the question had been submitted on last Saturday. However, it was believed confusion might have resulted. The vote on repeal was very close in the county but the vote was light. In view of the vote cast it is difficult to say whether the question has been definitely settled. Normally it was pointed out the minority should accept the verdict and the county entitled to have its liquor.

Texas voted dry in 1919 by a majority less than the repeal majority on last Saturday. Milam county in a local option election on December 10, 1917 voted for prohibition. That was only a few months after America had entered the world war. Like all other counties liquor has been available at all times under prohibition. While no petition has been reported as circulating, it is certain that the wets will demand the fruits of their majority on last Saturday and take steps at once to call an election. Any precinct may hold an election.

LIQUOR CASES MAY NOT BE TRIED HERE

Criminal District Attorney Emory B. Camp said Tuesday to the Herald that he could make no disposition at present of indictments now pending against two men in Milam county for alleged violation of liquor laws.

One of them is Jack Owings, proprietor of the Silver Grill bar closed (See LIQUOR CASES on page 12)

Revivalist Coming

REV. C. Y. DOSSEY

Baptist in Cameron will begin their revival meeting on Sunday September 15, and Rev. Dossey, state evangelist will do the preaching. Music will be directed by R. N. Duckworth. The pastor, N. D. Timmerman, was making all possible preparation for a sweeping revival campaign.

WOULD BUILD STATUE TO BEN MILAM HERE

Application to the allotment committee of the Texas Centennial has been made by Judge Jeff T. Kemp for $25,000 to erect a monument to Ben Milam, patriot, who figured prominently in the struggle for Texas liberty.

Judge Kemp filed the application on Friday of last week. He has hopes of obtaining the appropriation. So far this is the only request made for an allotment to Milam county, one of the most historic of Texas counties.

Ben Milam was a native of Missouri (See BEN MILAM on page 12)

Meets Men Here Sunday; Work Begins on September 2

Mobilization of Yoe High's 1935 edition of football men has been decreed by Coach Wood who has made Cameron football conscious with his dazzling record of 1934.

Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock all prospective candidates for the 1935 squad are called to meet at the school building or athletic field. Coach Wood was happy to have a number of letter men back this year and hopes were leading him to expect one of the smartest football teams Cameron ever sped down the runway under the maroon. He does not have the material to build what would be termed a comparatively heavy team this season, but football history proves that brains count.

The Yoemen will begin work at 8 a. m. on September 2nd and thus pointing toward the ambitious schedule that lies ahead. The Maroon tide (See YOEMEN on page 10)

Surgeon's Instruments Are Found in Depths of Lake

MILAM COUNTY VOTES TO END PROHIBITION

With less than half the qualified voters of the county going to the polls on last Saturday four of the amendments submitted were given majorities and three defeated.

In all cases the vote was close. Repeal carried by a majority of 196 votes. The old age pension amendment was given the largest majority (See PROHIBITION on page 12)

From the depths of a lake on the John B. McLane property late Friday Deputy Sheriff Clarence McCall took a number of surgical implements stolen from Dr. A. S. Epperson last week.

The discovery was made when a coat belonging to a Cameron woman and stolen from her automobile along with her purse, was seen floating about the lake. One bundle of instruments were found intact just as wrapped by the physician. The instrument kit, a leather bag, costing $21 hasn't been recovered. The purse belonging to the Cameron woman has not been found.

It was said by Deputy Sheriff McCall that practically all the instruments were recovered. He expressed the opinion that the man who stole them was a transient thief and left the country.

Thieving has become common in recent weeks, it was said. Officers are making a determined drive to clear the city of undesirables and if local to apprehend them.

"Texas Ranger"

DR. P. B. HILL

Minister of the largest Presbyterian church in the South, Dr. Hill will begin a revival meeting for the Presbyterians in Cameron on September 7th. It will be an unusual opportunity for the people to hear Dr. Hill. For years he has been a Texas Ranger and was Chaplain for the Texas Sheriff's Association for a number of years.

A conversation was overheard between several county officials a few days ago. It ran something like this: Q. What is the difference between an agriculturist and a farmer?

A. An agriculturist is one who lives in town and spends his money in the country, and the farmer is one who lives in the country and spends his money in town.

Q. Well, which one do you think is the better?

A. They're both good. (And the man was patted on the back as being a good politician.)

Here's a problem for the city police. When a side walk gets so congested by people that it becomes impossible for one to transact business readily it is time for a little help. Folks like to stand and talk and we don't mind that at all, but city officers should make it possible for those who have business to get through the dense mass of humans that clog the walk ways. It is not one Saturday, but every Saturday, that the block west of the court house on North Central street is so congested with people, just standing and talking that about all you can do is wiggle through. A number of citizens have commented on the ordeal of walking on that street during Saturday hours.

It begins to look like young politicians will have a big part in the coming 1936 campaign in Milam county. Young men made bids in 1934 and some of them lost. During the last primary campaign three of the youngest to ever offer for public office campaigned among the voters. They were Emory B. Camp, George Mayo Newton, Henderson Walker and Ernest Howard. Newton defeated Camp for the place of Representative from Milam County. Jesse James, another young man who has held the place of flatorial representatives two terms, had the same (See COURT HOUSE DOME page 5)

Old Age Pension Will Give Milam $51,690 Monthly; Cost $304,000 a Year

Milam County's old age pension bill will be $51,690 per month if the figures of the recent federal census are to be taken as correct.

There are 1723 people in the county who are 65 years of age and over who are eligible for the pension. These figures were released prior to the election by the organization in Texas opposed to the amendment. Under this enumeration of the eligibles the state's part at $15 per month would mean $25,845. Add to this the allowance by the federal government and the total per month is $51,690.

The old age pension, if realized at the figure of $30 for each eligible would bring $620,280 into the county each year.

It must be understood that the legislature of Texas has yet to devise a means of paying this stupendous (See PENSION on page 12)

COACH WOOD HONORED BY TEXAS ASSOCIATION

Coach Wood of Yoe High School will go to Houston on Saturday of this week to attend a meeting of the Texas High School Coaches of which he is secretary.

Coach Wood has been honored by this association beyond the average by far. He is the first Class B. coach in Texas to hold the position of secretary of the association and was also the first Class B coach to serve on the board of directors for this association.

At the Houston meeting Mr. Wood will become secretary when the term of his predecessor ends.

At the meeting in Houston Coaches in Texas will hear the rules interpreted for the 1935 season. These rules will govern all football in the state and nation in all classes.

Dr. J. A. Ferguson Leaves Cameron For New Corpus Home

Dr. J. A. Ferguson left Cameron for Corpus Christi where he will engage in business. He took leave of his many friends here Saturday and is now located near the waters of the gulf.

For a number of years Dr. Ferguson engaged in the practice of dentistry here. In recent months he has been writing insurance, closing his offices and retiring from his profession which he has followed for many years with much success and distinction.

Dr. Ferguson has many friends in Cameron who feel that Corpus Christi has gained much and by the same token Cameron has lost heavily in no longer being able to claim him as a citizen.

The Herald will go forward to his address in Corpus Christi and thru its columns he will be able to keep informed of the happenings in Milam County.

The following accompanied Francis Cox to Belton Tuesday and enjoyed a swim in the Belton Natatorium: Mr. and Mrs. James Baskin, Mrs. Leona G. White, Mrs. Cox. IN MEMORY OF OUR SON AND FATHER

On Sunday morning a year ago Came the angels from the other shore,
And took you on to that home, sweet home,
Where the earthly cares and pains are no more.

There the angels sweetly sing
In that home not made by human hands.
We know God never makes mistakes;
He always knows which one to take,
So He chose you with your loving deeds—

Your dear memories, they are sweet,
Come as a voice from that realm of peace,
And your presence is always known.
Our hearts are no longer filled with sadness,
But filled with gladness to know that we shall soon meet and see you face to face.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will Horlica and children.

try Gulf 3 weeks IN THE "TRAFFIC COURT"

Wanted: A fair trial

If it's been some time since you've used Gulf, try it 3 weeks—then give us your verdict.

Try it in traffic. Starts. Crawls. Get-aways. Climbs. There's no fairer test—and we think you'll confirm a recent judgment . . .

750 Turned Judges

We went to 750 owners of average cars—asked them to judge Gulf against their regular brands on mileage, starting, pick-up, power, all-around performance.

Gulf Won the Verdict!

At the end of the trial, 7 out of 10 voted Gulf superior on one or more of the 5 counts—many on all five.

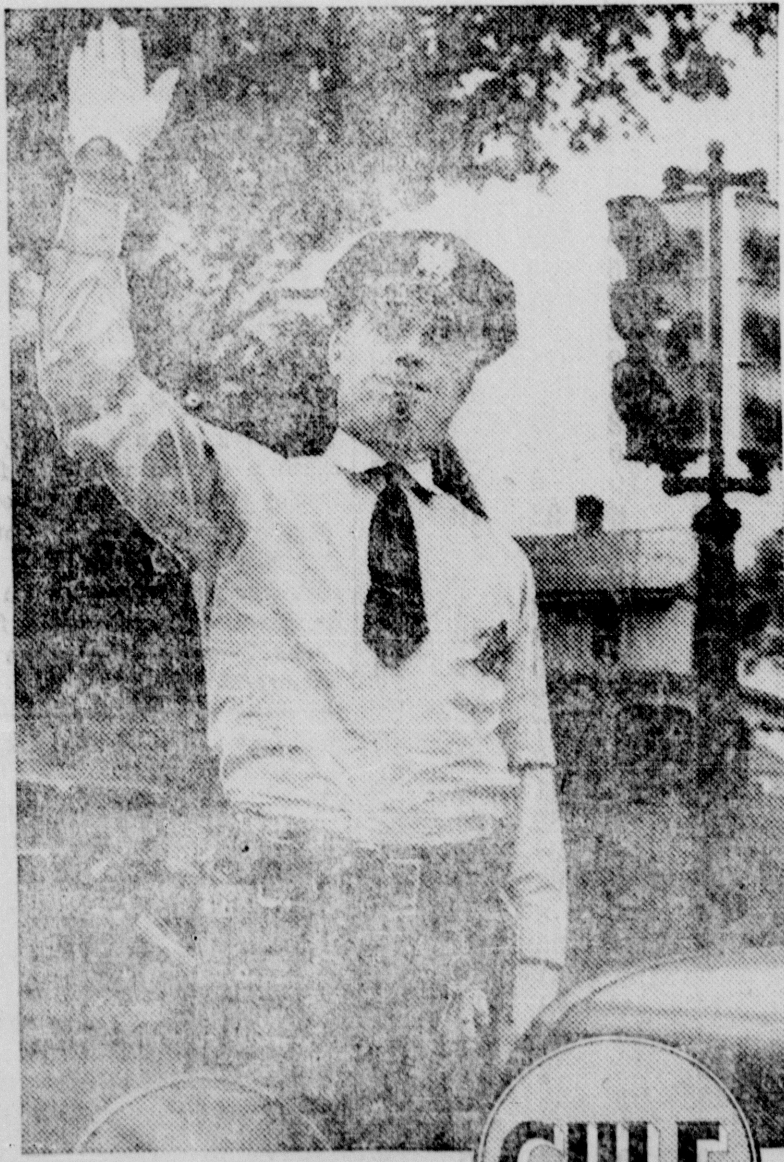

Reason? Controlled refining makes Gulf 5 good gasolines in one. Gives it not only 2 or 3—but all five qualities of a perfect gasoline.

Try That Good Gulf 3 weeks—and you'll be an addict!

GULF REFINING COMPANY

Q. What tip on "pickup" can cut down gasoline bills? You'll find the answer in this Gulf Booklet, plus 14 other valuable economy hints. Free—at the Sign of the Orange Disc.

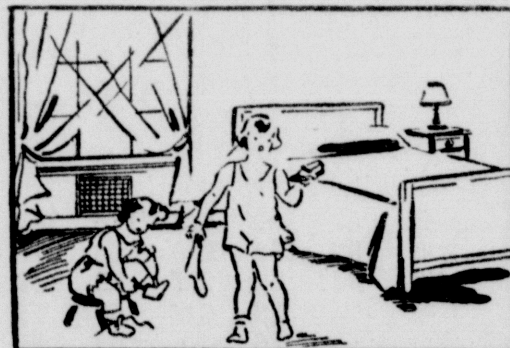

GULF

THAT GOOD GULF GASOLINE

HEAT

IN EVERY ROOM HAVE GAS CIRCULATED HEAT

ONE serious illness brought on by a cold can cost more in money and suffering than the few dollars it takes to have proper heating throughout the home. That's why healthful circulated gas heat is more than a luxury. It is a downright necessity in safeguarding your family's health through the winter.

With circulated heat in every room the temperature of your home will be in the "comfort zone"—between 65 and 71 degrees. Circulated heat is healthful because it knocks cold spots and chilling drafts. It is heat that ends wall sweating.

See the new floor furnaces and gas circulators—units that provide this circulating heat—now. They're easy to own. Pay only small amount down with monthly payments beginning in October.

EVELYN KRAUSE

Evelyn Krause, 5 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Krause of Bryant Station, died in Cameron on Saturday night, August 24 from diphtheria. She had been taken to the hospital for treatment and while her condition was known to be grave, her death came as a shock to many friends.

She is survived by her parents and one sister, Rosa Lee. She was born at Buckholts and there on Sunday afternoon funeral services for her were held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vybral. The services were held by Rev. Barton of the Granger Lutheran church.

From Buckholts the body of Evelyn was taken to Corinth for interment. Many friends extend their sympathy.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express to our neighbors and friends our sincere thanks for their kindness to us during the recent illness and death of our dear daughter, Evelyn. We especially wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Krall for their kindness. We thank the doctors and the nurses and all who assisted us and gave their attention at the hospital. Our appreciation is sincere and we will remember each one with gratitude.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Krause.

MABRY-EDMONDS

Miss Ellen Mabry and Benjamin Edmonds of near Cameron were united in Marriage on Sunday night at the Kemp home with Judge Jeff T. Kemp officiating in the ceremony.

The couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Pugh of Cameron. Mr. and Mrs. Edmonds will make their home in this county.

ABOLITION OF FEES CREATES BIG PROBLEM

Under the Fee Bill, the Tax Collector retained a certain per cent of collections of various taxes, namely Advalorem, Polls, Road and Schools, Highway License, Beer License and Occupation License, with his limit in salary fixed by law, according to the population of the County. The Assessor was paid in the same manner, his fees being based on the assessed valuation on the Tax Roll, valuations in Road Districts, and taxes assessed for school districts.

The official's salary, also that of his deputies, were paid out of these fees, and any excess in fees above the amount required to pay such salaries and necessary expenses of the office, paid in to the general fund of the County at the close of each year.

The fees on taxes assessed and collected could apply only on salaries and expenses for the fiscal year in which they were earned, and in case there were not enough taxes assessed and collected for the fees on such assessments and collections to pay the maximum salary, deficiency in salary could not be made up in the succeeding year, even though the fees were sufficient to do so.

As we understand the Amendment voted on and passed in the recent election the salaries of officials in Counties of more than 20,000 population, is to be fixed by the Legislature, and it remains to be seen whether the official will profit or lose by the change.

The Assessor-Collector's office is one of the most important and requires an unlimited amount of detail work to try to get all property assessed for taxation, and efforts put forth to collect as much as possible of taxes assessed, and distributing same to the proper funds.

The Herald selected the office of tax collector and assessor as typical of the offices existing under the fee system. All other offices in the county will come under the same regulation.

Not The Child's Fault

Just a few more days and school will open. If your child failed last year, don't be too severe in your criticism, till you know for sure if his eyes are functioning properly.

Should he need glasses and you fail to supply them, then the responsibility rests on your head and not on the child's. Have his eyes examined and if glasses are needed, he will be told so, and if glasses are not needed he will be told so.

Give your child a fair chance this year. You owe them that much. To fail in a grade means a year lost, besides, the embarrassment to the child and family.

Interesting Fall Ads.

Advertising is a mirror of the times. It is the harbinger of all seasons. On its present extensive scale, advertising tells each half of the world how the other half lives. The time is past when one can keep one hand from knowing what the other hand is doing.

A change of seasons is at hand. What will the new season be? Newspaper advertising foretells that it will be the season of radio, phonographs, new household furnishings, books and wearing apparel appropriate to the period of transition between the two extremes of climates.

Late summer and early autumn turn the American mind to thoughts of long winter evenings and home. The automobile has emptied the front porches of America but the home fireside still calls when winter winds blow and the radio is at its best. The great quantity of radio, phonograph and furniture advertising completely refutes the jeremiad about the unloosing of the home ties.

Current advertising reflects another change recent years have wrought in the American scene. The predominance of automobile advertising is explained by the custom of many car owners to buy the new car in the late summer or early fall when new models are making their debut. It is to autumn that one looks for perfect motoring days and the temperate days of September and October seem made especially for breaking in new motors.

Seasonal buying is as natural and irresistible as the changing of the seasons. Before merchandising and advertising had been developed to their present state of near perfection, a barefoot populace avidly poured over the pages of the almanac for the pills and potions of the season. Today it has something better to shop for in the advertising columns.

How Cardui Helps Women To Build Up

Cardui stimulates the appetite and improves digestion, helping women to get more strength from the food they eat. As nourishment is improved, strength is built up, certain functional pains go away and women praise Cardui for helping them back to good health. . . . Mrs. C. E. Ratliff, of Hinton, W. Va., writes: "After the birth of my last baby, I did not seem to get my strength back. I took Cardui again and was soon sound and well. I have given it to my daughters and recommend it to other ladies." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

D. H. REID WILL JUDGE POULTRY AT FAIR

Prof. D. H. Reid, head of the department of Poultry Husbandry of Texas A. & M. College, College Station, will judge the poultry exhibits at the Milam County Fair on Friday October 11, according to a letter just received by E. D. Parnell, general chairman of the fair.

Prof. Reid will judge all breeds of poultry, pet stock, capons and eggs in the show. He is an experienced judge and is in heavy demand at the various shows held in Texas. In addition to his regular work at College he has been active in the International and Texas Baby Chick Associations and in the Poultry Science Association.

Last year he was elected president of the International Poultry Science Association, the first time such an honor ever came to a Texan, and he was responsible for bringing the annual meeting of the Association to Texas for the first time.

In addition to judging the show here, Prof. Reid will be asked to address a meeting of the poultrymen of Milam County during his brief visit.

Some weeks ago the Herald was glad to have word from Mrs. Martha Pfardrescher in Brownwood. She has been a reader of the Herald for a long time. She has recently moved to Port Arthur and the paper will go forward to her address there. Mrs. Pfardrescher finds many things of interest in the home town newspaper each week.

California Guests Honored By Milano Socials This Week

Mrs. Anna Mae Dudley Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Welcom D. Woods of Milano were hosts to one hundred guests at a lawn party last Wednesday evening, honoring Mrs. Anna Mae Dudley of California, a recent guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Beard.

The lighted lawn was beautiful in its arrangement of flowers placed at vantage points on the rock effect garden. Tables for 42 and bridge furnished the major entertainment. Delightful music throughout the evening was furnished by Elbert Westbrook and his orchestra.

Mrs. Carlos Sloan, Lon M. Peeples, Misses Inez and Flossie Beard presided over the punch service.

California Guest Honored at Bridge Party

Mrs. Lon M. Peeples was hostess to three tables of bridge last Monday evening honoring her sister, Mrs. Anna Mae Dudley of Bakersfield, California.

Pink roses were placed at vantage points in the living room. The color scheme of pink and white predominated in the bridge accessories and was carried out in the refreshment course.

Guests for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Lee Braun, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. Welcom Woods, Mrs. Anna Mae Dudley, Arnold Butts, Misses Lottie Butts, Inez Beard, Flossie Beard, and Mr. and Mrs. Lon M. Peeples.

UNDER THE COURT HOUSE DOME

opponents each time, both from Lee county. It is rumored Jesse may have an opponent from his own county this year. Bill Morrison, now city attorney, has ambitions to be district attorney. Last year he engaged in a contest before the executive committee for a place on the ballot and lost to Emory Camp. He will be a candidate next summer. It is known that another young man whose hat will be in the ring and whose name will be revealed soon, is going to enter the campaign for District Clerk against the veteran Penn Wolf. He is not lacking in courage, for Mr. Wolf's popularity has never been questioned. Also the veteran district clerk has never had an opponent.

Wonder what is going to be done about the court house basement. Six months ago plans were approved to excavate the basement for the purpose of making offices and rest rooms. So far excavations and sewer extension is all that has been accomplished. There was to follow in this project the destruction of the unsightly building now occupied by the tax collector and the old sanitary accommodations long since declared a menace were to be replaced with modern improvements. For the past month or more, work has been at a standstill. There remains spanning one of the walk ways a large deposit of debris that adds nothing to the civic appearance of the court house lawn. Melon rinds lie in an indiscriminate mass about the lawn. Every afternoon a scavenger wagon rolls up and takes them away. Eating melons on the court house lawn and leaving the rinds has become both an institution and tradition.

"The double incentive of providing work for the jobless and of securing needed public improvements of permanent benefit to your community is offered by P. W. A. Not nearly enough proposals have been presented at national headquarters. Drastic curtailment of FERA allotments scheduled for November 1 will place the burden of caring for our own needy upon the counties and cities. Utilize the facilities of WPA and you will have jobs awaiting those persons when their relief grants are discontinued." These words came from H. P. Drought, state administrator for the Works Progress Administration. The Commissioners' Court of Milam County has done its part, that is the appointment of a planning board before which projects can be presented. The county has presented a lateral road project which was approved at Austin. The Cameron public schools have made application for $20,150 for a general improvement plan, besides the $32,000 gymnasium which was approved some days ago by President Roosevelt. So far the city has presented no project. Unless the city government takes steps soon to provide work for its jobless the responsibility will fall heavily this winter when direct relief is shut off. By failure to take advantage of the opportunity to get federal grants the city will lose much for the people who live here who will have to pay taxes to improve other cities and towns while at the same time neglecting to get what rightfully belongs to them.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Cox, Miss Mildred Thornton of this city and their guests, Miss Miriam Jordan of Midway, Ala., have returned from a six weeks' tour in a number of states. They also attended the exposition in Southern California.

Salty Singers To Meet In Milano

Milano will entertain the Salty Singing Convention on the third Sunday in November, it was announced following the last convention held last Sunday at Salty.

The Salty Singing Convention is a widely known gathering and on last Sunday a special quartet of singers were present from Dallas to play a part in the entertainment program.

PARTY FOR VISITORS

Misses Helen Mae Bullock and Mary Louise Bakke of Temple were guests of Mrs. F. O. Lofpice in Cameron Thursday and Friday.

On Thursday night, the two girls were entertained with a party by Mrs. Lofpice. Dancing and games were enjoyed, and at the conclusion fruit punch and sandwiches were served.

Following the party, the girls stayed for a slumber party and the next morning enjoyed a breakfast at the Stidham boarding house.

PARNELL GIVEN PLACE ON CENTENNIAL EXHIBITS

All chapters of the Future Farmers of America in Texas will have a definite part in making the Texas Centennial Exposition at Dallas a big success, according to plans disclosed during the past week at regional meetings of Vocational Agriculture teachers. Three Future Farmer divisions have been formed in livestock, poultry and general agriculture and liberal prizes are to be offered in each division.

At the regional meeting held at College Station, E. D. Parnell, Cameron teacher of Vocational Agriculture, was elected a member of the statewide committee on exhibiting poultry and turkeys and he in turn named a committee of five to work with him in getting exhibits from East and Central Texas. The committeemen to assist Parnell are J. A. Stark, Sealy; A. B. Childers, Mart; C. L. Cadenhead, Midway; R. D. Maxwell, Rockdale and H. L. Matthews, Elkhart. W. M. Gourley is the state committeeman from the Kingsville district. Other members of the state committee have not been announced. Walter Burton of Dallas, who is an APA judge, has charge of the general poultry exhibits in Texas; J. A. Moore has charge of general agriculture, and W. L. Stangel will have charge of livestock. The Centennial will open June 6, 1936 and close November 29.

All members of the three Centennial committees will meet in Dallas early in October to make final plans for the exposition. J. B. Rutland, state supervisor for Vocational Education, reports.

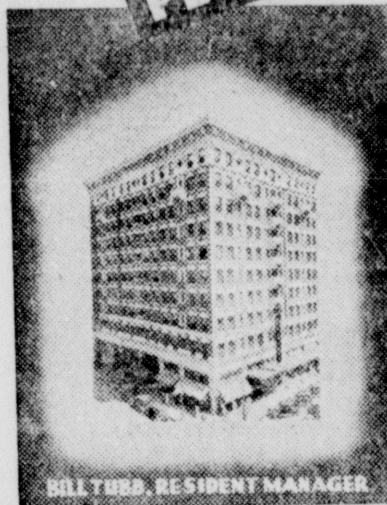

A number of Cameron Future Farmers have already selected and prepared field crops that are to be shown at the Centennial. These crops will also be shown at Waco, Temple and at the Milam County Fair at Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles McDermott had as recent guests Mr. and Mrs. Brison of Prescott, Ark. They were in company of their son, Ed Brison and while here enjoyed a trip to Austin and San Antonio.

Refreshing Relief When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective... Mr. J. people on last Saturday will levy a tax of $8 per capita in Texas for the state's part alone. It will cost Milam county three hundred and four thousand dollars annually, if the 1723 eligibles are placed on the pension roll. If they are not the people themselves will repudiate the legislature. No politician can survive this ordeal. Only a general sales tax levy can supply this money. It will cost forty million dollars a year in Texas alone. A like amount will have to be collected for the federal government, if all are placed on the roll. Everybody wishes it could happen, but nobody believes it can be done.

No Competition
With Us.

The average American does not realize the extent to which the British have absolutely ruled out of consideration the possibility of any war with the United States. In a recent discussion of British naval power the British naval expert, Hector C. Bywater expressed the British sentiment as follows:

"As regards British naval policy, drastic changes are plainly indicated. Whatever may have been the case in the past, there is in the future to be absolutely no competition with the United States. It has been tacitly decided by all parties in this country that the strength of the United States navy is a matter of purely sympathetic interest to us.

"A powerful United States fleet in the Pacific is appreciated as a bulwark of peace, while no Briton outside a mental clinic would be in the least perturbed were the United States to build up a strong naval force in the Atlantic. Our sole concern with the United States naval expansion lies in its possible effects on other nations.

Reduced Spending.

There are quite a few signs that the Federal Government expects to reduce its expenditures for relief and business works during the coming months.

Contributions for relief dropped $35,000,000 from May to July as the intensive drive to put the unemployed back to work got under way. Coupled with this was the policy of making the states and local communities take care of those dependent who were physically unable to work. The number of families on relief dropped between January and June.

The strike in New York by workers on a WPA project is another illustration. Under the PWA skilled workers were limited to earn only sixty dollars a month. Under the WPA they may earn $93.50 but have to put in longer working hours making the basic return rate lower. Union leaders oppose this and some of the workers went on a temporary strike.

The issue between labor and the WPA rate scale, as far as the New York strike was concerned was promptly accepted by Harry Hopkins, who said: "No one has to work who does not want to. Those declining to work will go off our rolls and what happens to them after that is not our business but the concern of their own States. It will be for the officials of their own communities or state, county or city, to determine what, if any, relief they receive thereafter from local funds. They will receive none from the Federal government."

Don't Laugh Too Soon

Let's not laugh too much at the Japanese people who believe that their Emperor is a direct descendant of heaven and a ruler by divine right. We have citizens in this country who have some queer ideas and the number of folks now believing discredited teachings would surprise the readers of the Herald.

Take for example the case of the Cleveland woman, who shot a neighbor to death because she would not sign a statement renouncing witchcraft against the killer and her husband. Both tell a strange story of fireballs dancing in their rooms for years and often burning them! They "knew" that the neighbor had bewitched them. Years ago, in this same republic, they could have had the lady tried and executed by law.

Protect Our Land

Wind or water erosion is given credit for the destruction of 51,465,097 acres of formerly good farming soil. The area is almost as large as the state of Kansas, although it is, of course, distributed more generally.

Federal authorities predict that a continuation of the present lack of attention to this situation will mean that our agricultural lands will continue to be lost to these natural forces, which have been aggravated by the methods we have adopted, cutting down our forests and unwise methods of agriculture.

Trees and Highways.

The roadside tree is at last coming into its own. Those who have survived the ravages of modern traffic are being protected and new trees are being planted along shadeless highways.

Ancient enemies of the roadside trees are the sign and bill poster, the road builder, the lineman and the landowner. For years they took an appalling toll in trees, but all are now on the defensive, if not giving voluntary cooperation in the preservation of trees along the highways.

There are times when the removal of a tree or a whole row of trees is necessary to eliminate a dangerous curve or to widen a highway. Under the old order of things such trees were removed and forgotten. Today trees thus removed are either replanted or replaced by new trees in many states.

No longer do the linemen of telephone, telegraph and electric power companies recklessly hack and saw at highway shade trees because the limbs interfere with the wires. Unscientific trimming by linemen killed countless valuable trees before the government began holding the owners of the wires accountable for the trees damaged by their employees.

A motor highway of the future will be a broad thoroughfare bordered on both sides by shade-giving trees and with all communication and power transmission lines running free of the trees from the roadway. To minimize danger to the traffic from storm-broken trees the trees on this highway of tomorrow will be placed at a safe distance from the roadway.

Essential To National Welfare

The welfare of the United States will never be complete until farmers of this country are secure in the possession of a standard of living that is, at least, on an equality with that achieved by other economic groups.

There is a vast untouched reservoir of buying power behind such an objective and the flood of orders that industrial companies would receive when the goal is attained will convince laborers and capitalists that there is more to the farm parity idea than a catch-phrase to snare votes.

The Herald is not wedded to any form of farm relief. The essential test is whether the income of farmers is being increased or not. We are for any scheme that accomplishes this until somebody comes forth with a proposition that will do it faster.

Lions, He Says Are Timid.

It may interest some readers of the Herald to know, on the opinion of Mr. James Fitz Patrick, that lions in Africa were too timid to do their stuff before his camera and that in one instance, a crowd of native children, by throwing stones, dispersed a lot of lions after they had made a kill.

We have seen lions in our day that gave appearance of ferocity and some of the reading matter that we have come across also conveyed the safe general idea. It is good to learn, however, in case we need the information, that a lion can be routed by pellets of stones. The idea has backing, it seems, in the way domestic dogs flee when a man stoops to get a rock off the ground.

Japanese Protests Fantastic.

Not long ago the State Department expressed its regret to Japan after that nation protested a cartoon in a magazine published in this country. Subsequently, Japanese sensibilities were riled by the reported caricature of the Mikado in connection with some event of the west.

The protest of Japan, if repeated and reiterated, becomes foolish. The government of the United States has no censorship over the press or people of this country, and they may be expected to express themselves without regard to the national sensibility existing in Japan, or for that matter Mexico, Germany, Italy and other sections.

It seems to us that the Japanese have a far fetched idea of holiness in regard to the Mikado, and that their effort to prevent other people from expressing their non-conformance is fantastic.

However, it would seem unnecessary for people in this country to indiscriminately trample upon Japanese veneration for their ruler or to wantonly ridicule the serious shibboleths of other nations.

Certainly, one does not intentionally offend a friend, irresponsible on legal rights.

Japan's Unique Method.

Japanese leaders have adopted a unique method to provide various necessary war supplies without the necessity of the Government spending any money.

Sometime ago the Japanese passed a law requiring all oil companies doing business in the empire to construct tanks and keep a reserve supply of oil adequate to supply the demand for at least six months, or more. This meant that these oil companies would maintain, without cost to the government, a war supply of this necessary fuel.

Another step along the same direction has been the passage of a law putting all automobile manufacturers under rigid government control. This means that the building of automobiles will be subject to army directions. Eighty per cent of the automotive industries in Japan is owned by Americans.

Although such laws may cause international friction the Japanese shrewdly realize that by such measures they make American capital prepare Japan for war either with America or any other nation.

Our Thoughts and Yours.

The Herald does not expect the day to arrive when all of its readers will subscribe to all of its opinions.

Neither does this newspaper attempt to express only those views which are generally accepted by ninety per cent of its readers. It really tries to voice opinions based upon reason, as influenced by our experience in life.

The fact that two men cannot disagree except with ill feeling is the conclusive evidence of the thin veneer of culture that civilization has put upon our barbarism. The heat with which an individual resents any thought contrary to accepted thinking is the proof positive that somewhere in the mental conclusions of the objector there is a flaw.

COTTON REPORT

Ray O'Neill, special agent, reports 487 bales of cotton ginned from the crop of 1935 up to August 16 as compared with 6442 ginned from the crop of 1934 for the same date last year.

Indications are that the crop will be small due to wet weather and the planting season is late also.

The following spent Wednesday in Calvert as a guest of Mrs. Perry Tindall: Mrs. Grady Stidham and children, Myrtle and Grady Stidham, Jr. Billy Cooper, John Lane Baskin and Cameron guests, Jeannette David of Dallas and Charlotte Stidham of Houston and Mrs. T. CORNERSTONE IS LAID
FOR CATHOLIC SCHOOL

The cornerstone for St. Monica's parish school was laid Monday in a ceremony presided over by Rev. Geo. Apel, pastor.

The school has been under construction here for several weeks and will be in readiness for the opening of the school term in September.

Father Apel has been an outstanding builder in the Galveston Diocese and was recently complimented by Bishop Byrne for his good work. He built the new church and now lays the cornerstone for the new school.

Among other things placed in the cornerstone was a copy of the Cameron Herald of recent date carrying a story of the school and a photo of Father Apel.

NEW FORD V-8

The Car Without Experiments

THERE'S never any doubt about value when you buy a Ford car. You know it's all right or Henry Ford wouldn't put it out. One thing that never changes is his policy of dependable transportation at low cost.

That's the biggest feature of the New Ford. The reliability and economy of its V-8 engine have been proved on the road by upwards of 1,400,000 motorists. Owner cost records show definitely that the Ford V-8 is the most economical Ford car ever built.

Many Times

Not The Child's Fault

Just a few more days and school will open. If your child failed last year, don't be too severe in your criticism, till you know for sure if his eyes are functioning properly.

Should he need glasses and you fail to supply them, then the responsibility rests on your head and not on the child's. Have his eyes examined and if glasses are needed, he will be told so, and if glasses are not needed he will be told so.

Give your child a fair chance this year. You owe them that much. To fail in a grade means a year lost, besides, the embarrassment to the child and family.

Cameron Mutual Is Praised for Prompt Payment of Claims

Cameron Mutual Life Insurance Association had advanced its service to beneficiaries and policy holders again Tuesday when a check for $1000 was delivered to A. E. Schiller in payment of the claim for that amount following the death of his wife on Monday night.

B. V. Roberts, secretary, said the company had followed this policy for a long time. The company was organized in 1922 and during that time has paid out many thousands of dollars to beneficiaries. Prompt payment of claims have led many to say that the company deserves the solid support of the people of Cameron and territory.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS OF VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION OF THE BURLINGTON STATE BANK, BURLINGTON, TEXAS.

In compliance with Articles 539-40 of the R. S. of Texas, notice is given by the directors of the Burlington State Bank, located at Burlington, Milam County, Texas, that a stockholders meeting of the said bank held on the 5th day of August, 1935, pursuant to notice theretofore given, as prescribed by statutes, the proposition was duly submitted to said stockholders to close the business of the banking corporation, and that at said meeting resolution was unanimously adopted that pursuant to the action taken January 25, 1932, by the stockholders of said bank, all depositors and creditors have been fully paid, and that after discharging all remaining liabilities, if any, the remaining assets of said bank be distributed proportionately among the stockholders and that the bank surrender and have cancelled its corporate franchise; and that the proper officers and directors be fully authorized and directed to take all necessary action, with the power to execute all necessary papers to effect such dissolution.

Accordingly, the undersigned directors give this notice of the action so taken, and that at the expiration of three months from said date, the

Iron Cross From Dead German Soldier Stirs Old Memories of World War For Sgt. A. C. Balhorn of S. P. Lines Here

An incident of the past week that stirred old memories for Sgt. A. C. Balhorn of the Southern Pacific Lines here, was the discovery in some personal effects of an Iron Cross he took from the body of a dead German soldier in the Toul sector in France during 1918.

His small daughter, looking through an old trunk came across the emblem. Mr. Balhorn had almost forgotten the hectic days and the red roads to glory under the flag with the 146th Engineers in France. It has been more than 17 years since he found the dead German who had been decorated by his Emperor for extraordinary service to the Fatherland.

With a few companions one day during the heat of battle he stumbled over the body of the dead German. The enemy was beyond aid so he divested him of the Cross and placed it among his souvenirs of the world war.

The Iron Cross as a military decoration was first instituted in 1813 and statutory requirements and action will be completed.

GROUNDWORK IS LAID FOR SCHOOL TERM

In preparation for the opening of school, letters are being mailed to all students who have transferred to the Cameron School District for High School purposes for their first time. All these pupils are requested to bring their report cards and register Saturday afternoon, August 31st. If they are in the 8th or 9th grade they will report at 1:30 o'clock. If they are in the 10th or 11th grade they will report at 3 o'clock.

If any pupils who were in school last year wish to change their schedule from that made out last spring, they should report to the office by August 31st as all courses of study for the individual pupils will be arranged by the superintendent and the principal during the first week of September.

Mrs. Mary Lake Henderson Culpepper presented a request to the School Board which was assembled Monday night requesting a leave of absence for one year in order to complete the work of her M. A. Degree. This leave of absence was granted and Mrs. Gladys Walker Hefley was elected to the position thus made vacant.

Miss Irma Porter, principal of the Ada Henderson School has been in the Scott and White Hospital at Temple for the past several days, but is expected to be able to return to her work at the opening of school September 9th.

W. C. Wiese, principal of Yoe High School, has spent several weeks in California and the Western States in company with his mother. He has returned for the years work at Yoe High School and is looking forward to a good school year.

Other teachers will be coming in between now and Saturday, September 7th, when there will be a faculty meeting preparatory to the opening of school.

Judge Jeff T. Kemp appointed John Backhaus of Rockdale, Smith Summerlin of Thorndale, and Andrew Esslinger to select jurors to serve for October, December and February terms of county court.

HONORS FOR MISS DAVID

Honoring Miss Jeanette David of Dallas, a swimming party was given at the Belton Natatorium Tuesday afternoon. Chaperons were Mrs. Grady Stidham, Mrs. J. C. Martin and Mrs. Leland Green. Those to attend were Misses Myrtle Stidham, Clara Baekin, Iva Earle Heath, Mary Ann Green, Margaret Martin, Josephine Newton, Charlotte Stidham of Houston. Boys were John Lane Baekin, Dana Kestenbaum, Billie Cooper, Charles Roy Law, Carter Brogdon, Charles Spratt, Wilford Baldwin, Sam Tyson.

Following the swim a picnic supper was enjoyed.

Miss David who visited in the home of Mrs. Tom Denson for several weeks, and has returned to her home in Dallas.

HILLIARD THOMAS IS BACK FROM EUROPE

Hilliard Thomas who led the class of 1934 at Yoe High School and won the honors, has just returned to Cameron from a two months journey on the continent of Europe.

Back at his post of duty in the service of the Citizens National Bank, he expressed happiness over his trip but glad to be back with his home folks and friends in Cameron.

In Italy he found the people expectant of war and the entire country under vast energy for the coming Ethiopian campaign. In most countries the people, he said, seemed interested in their own affairs.

At Aldershot in England he saw the great army review, King George and Queen Mary and the Royal family. Hilliard's grandfather Thomas was a native of England and the British Isles had a strong appeal. In Germany he found the people chiefly interested in reconstruction work, building bridges, subways and homes. There seemed to be no apprehension about war in Adolph Hitler's country. In Holland he found the most peaceful of all countries in Europe. In France he saw the average of French living, appreciating the American tourists.

Travel was extensive in Italy because of the historic interest. He traveled with a company of tourists from America. They sailed aboard the steamship Washington on July 3, making the passage to Plymouth, England in 5 days.

Honoring Misses Helen Bullock and Mary Louise Baake of Temple, Mrs. F. O. Loftice entertained with a slumber party, and next morning enjoyed a kodak party to Ledbetter Park, and later repaired to the home of Mrs. J. C. Martin for refreshments.

Miss Tabbie Robinson is spending a few days in Temple visiting her sister, Mrs. Mort Lyles.

MRS. SARAH MARTIN DIES IN BURNET HOME

Mrs. Sarah Martin, 89, died Tuesday August 20th at her home in Burnet. Funeral was held the following day with interment in the Burnet cemetery.

Mrs. Martin had visited in Cameron, and was present at the funeral of her daughter, Mrs. Laura Cone, who died a few years ago. She was a grandmother of Mrs. W. L. Turner of Cameron, Mrs. John Henry Thomas of Gause, Mrs. Cotham of San Antonio and another sister, Mrs. Asberry. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Virginia Dorbandt of Abilene.

"I have been receiving the Herald and it is the next thing to meeting and old friend," says C. H. Pollard, now with the Federal Court in San Antonio. The editor likes to hear from old friends and regrets that Mr. Pollard found it necessary to move to San Antonio. Charley is a good fisherman and was thinking of going out to Medina when he wrote us. This brings to mind another trip to Medina made by Cameron young men several years ago and Mr. Pollard was a member of that party. We recall also that Julian Baskin, Hayden Lawrence and Hilry Stedman were members of the party also, including the editor of these columns. The publishers are glad to know that Mr. Pollard enjoys the Herald and we know he is remembered here with every kindness by his many friends.

Take mildness for one thing—how does it measure up for mildness?

Chesterfields are milder—not flat or insipid, of course, but with a pleasing flavor.

Then take taste for another thing—does it have plenty of taste?

last year won the district and lost to Smithville in the bi-district game.

Likes Age Limit

Coach Wood was hopeful that the rule recently set up barring men over 18 years of age would continue. Men allowed to play up to that age and with the abolition of the 8 semester rule would give Cameron a great advantage. Under these terms all the letter men who graduated last year would be eligible to play again this year if they could continue studies.

Coach Wood points to Stanislaw, sensational tackle last year, playing as first string man, and only 14 years old. His possibilities will be almost unlimited if given another three years. Leonard Blaylock, red head, and greatest center in Maroon history, could play this year also. Lad Hrozek, running star back, would also be eligible.

Feels Responsibility

The Coach feels the responsibility heavily this year. He wants the boys to turn out in great numbers. Any of them interested in any kind of football should meet him next Sunday at 5 p. m. Clinton Breeding is Captain this year. Coach Wood is depending on him in the back field. Simmie Smith will be back; Triggs will be back; Ermis will be back and other letter men. Shirley and Joe McLane will be shining this year. Speculation was going the rounds that Stanislaw might get a try in the back field. He might prove the sensation of the year in Texas high school football.

Louie Turner looks good for a back field position. He starred in the game against Rogers last year. Peck is also assured a place and one of the best looking boys that has come along the cleat road in many a day.

To Douglas Perrin will go the difficult assignment of center to take the place of Blaylock who turned in a glorious uniform last year, and a job well done. Perrin looks good in the place and is apt to be fast and powerful.

Stadium Is Important

Coach Wood was pleased with progress made thus far on the stadium. He wants a press box and believes the stands to seat the people who come to the games is the most important thing right now since revenues are so necessary. Folks just want to sit down at a foot ball game some time and unless seats are provided attendance will be cut down.

Coach Wood is going to give the best he's got and folks who know him know that's a lot to give. He is rated the best Class B. Coach in Texas and the record of the Yoemen last year proves he has made Cameron football conscious and in addition has held out opportunity to every boy to come in and share in the honors of the field where soon the maroon and white will be streaming to victory.

Mrs. Dan Hanna and small son, Dannie, Jr., of Houston, left Monday for their home after spending a week in the home of Mrs. Lena Baskin. Mrs. Hanna formerly lived in Cameron and has many friends here who are always glad to welcome her return visits. She possesses a fine soprano voice and favored the congregation at the first Methodist church Sunday morning with a voice number.

Herald Gets Place Among Pioneers Of Publishing Industry; One of 116 Such Publications In Texas

The Cameron Herald is one of the 116 publications in Texas established more than 50 years ago.

Charles C. Gilbert, secretary of the Fifty Years in Business Club, has just notified the publishers that the Herald has been permanently established in the column of the pioneers of Texas history. The Herald was established in 1860 and is therefore going on its 76th year. New York state leads in the number of aged publications with 333.

More publishing companies are eligible for membership in the Fifty Years in Business Club than are the concerns in any other business enterprise in the nation. General Charles C. Gilbert, organization secretary, announced today following a country-wide survey to locate all half century old establishments.

Of the 18,812 publications now in existence in the United States, 3,697 were established prior to 1885, these figures being inclusive of daily and weekly newspapers, magazines, and other publications.

"Also I am pleased to report that I have located 2,207 banking institutions and 1,198 industrial and mercantile firms, in addition to a number of lodges, churches, schools and other organizations. Through the assistance of Chambers of Commerce, the cooperation of newspapers and from other sources of authentic information I hope to develop the complete list," General Gilbert said.

Approximately 400 of the fifty-year old firms located by the first survey have indicated that they would be represented at the first meeting of the Fifty Years in Business Club which is contemplated to be held in Washington sometime during the fall, the secretary said.

At the meeting, according to the announcement, outstanding men from the ranks of the fifty years in business group will make up the ranks of speakers and will tell of the experiences through which their organizations have passed during their fifty years.

One of the purposes of the Fifty Years in Business Club, General Gilbert said is to bring "into this generation the principles which were the underlying causes for success in the business of their fathers and grandfathers."

"Things don't just happen and success does not often come by chance. The several thousand concerns that have braved storms and weathered vicissitudes over such a long period of time were without doubt built upon solid foundations. Just what some of the foundation stones are will be emphasized at our fall meeting."

"While it is true that many of the founders of these enterprises have permanently retired from active management and possibly a still larger number passed on to their rich rewards, yet there are those who will welcome this opportunity to pay tribute to those who founded their business and left with it the rich heritage of sound judgment, honest endeavor, and unyielding faith in their venture."

"A large number of the enterprises were founded more than 100 years ago and when the meeting is held special recognition will be given such concerns," he said.

General Gilbert declared that the Fifty Years in Business movement is designed to show the value of the fundamentals in business and governments, and expressed himself much pleased with the success of the bringing forward idea to date.

For many years I have had in mind just such a movement. I have felt that a permanent organization composed of experienced leaders would be of untold value and that especially would it be interesting to know how many concerns now active had their origin prior to 1885. After a thorough search has been made, and letters exchanged with the heads of the concerns, a nationwide organization will be contemplated with enrollment confined to those concerns that have been in continuous operation for fifty or more years," he said.

The Herald is glad it can participate in the fifty years in business movement, it having been organized in 1860 and in continuous operation since that date.

MILANO

* Mrs. Ola Edwards was called to Minerva Thursday to see her mother in law who is seriously ill.

The cream supper given by the Cemetery Association Saturday night was attended by a large crowd. Bryant Bullock received the quilt and J. D. Peoples, Jr., the angel food cake and the Association wishes to extend their thanks to the people for making it such a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Woods entertained with a social Wednesday evening for her mother and sister who left that night for Bakerfield, California. Games of bridge and 42 were played. A four piece orchestra rendered music during the evening. The guests were entertained on the lawn, which was decorated with growing and cut flowers. Miss Flossie and Lillian Beard and Mrs. Carlton Sloan served punch and cake to the hundred or more guests. It was a late hour when they began leaving and expressing to Mr. and Mrs. Woods their appreciation for the privilege of spending such a pleasant evening.

Mr. Will Hensley attended the funeral of his brother, Sheffield Hensley in San Saba Thursday. Mr. Hensley had a number of friends here who were grieved at his passing. He was at one time a citizen of Milano.

Mrs. E. H. Dudley returned to her home in Bakerfield, California, last Thursday. She was accompanied by her mother Mrs. C. M. Beard who will be her guest for several weeks.
